

21 September 2012

Office of the Commissioner
Police National Headquarters
PO Box 3017
WELLINGTON

To whom it may concern:

On Monday, 20 August 2012, the police department wrote wanting me to provide them with a "supplementary statement" for their "criminal investigation".

My "supplementary statement" dated 5 September 2012 was published on-line here:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/confession/5/>

Inexplicably, I overlooked sending a copy to the department . . . please find enclosed, below:

Thank you

Patrick O'Brien
X-Constable 3667

. . . / "supplementary statement"

“supplementary statement”

5 September 2012:

It is nearly five years now [1] since I wrote to the Chief Justice and confessed telling lies in court [2] to obtain convictions against my targets while working as an undercover officer [3] and agent-provocateur for the Crown. Since then, I have fully cooperated with the police department’s self-styled “independent” inquiry [4] — admitted criminal liability [5] for my offending, stated I will plead guilty to any charges, and have also provided police with an evidential interview [6] where I made a full and frank admission of my offending.

So — tick~tock~tick~tock [7] — what’s the delay? Why haven’t I been arrested?

Huh, it turns out the police department now want me to come in and have . . . a “talk” . . .

For the sake of transparency [8] I wrote to the department’s criminal investigator (yea, they’ve had an “inquiry” — now they’re having an “investigation”) asking that he formulate in writing [9] what it is the police wished to say to me, and, further, to put in writing any more questions they might have of me. The department has refused, saying they need to “discuss” these matters with me and create a “supplementary” statement.

Yep, same-old same-old, Déjà vu, for I recognise this as being the part where my revelations are written off, covered up and buried — as has happened before, with the USED Group [10] being one notable example.

Well, I’m not having any of it and I’ve written to Her Majesty the Queen, today’s date, advising I will not be party to a cover-up of my own offending — nor will I play any further role in this corrupt perversion being conducted by the police department.

A plain text transcript of the Queen's letter, including a Link to my original digitally signed document, is here:

- <http://obrien.wordpress.com/crown/>

Thank you

Patrick O’Brien

FOOTNOTES:

[1] Time-line in my process:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/time-line/>

[2] My confession to the Chief Justice, Dame Sian Elias:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/confession/>

[3] Some notes on my work as an undercover agent:

<http://patrickobrien.wordpress.com/2012/03/28/about-7/>

[4] My correspondence with the police department's "independent" inquiry:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/legal/police/inquiry/>

[5] My correspondence with the police department's "criminal" investigation:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/legal/police/investigation/>

[6] Transcript of my evidential interview with police:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/legal/police/interview/>

[7] The clock . . .

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/legal/police/tick-tock/>

[8] Summary of my information requests that have been refused by police:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/2011/04/16/18/>

[9] My request of police for their questions to be in writing:

<http://obrien.wordpress.com/legal/police/investigation/2/>

[10] My notes on the USED Group:

<http://patrickobrien.wordpress.com/2011/11/03/used-group/>

. . . / ENDS